Sock Hop Rock & Roll Reunion Dance Party in North Haven - Nov. 29th

In May of 1987, a nightclub opened in downtown New Haven like no other before it or since. On the corner of College and Crown Streets, in the location that was for years home to Harold's Restaurant, and, later on, the Court Jester nightclub, it instantly became an institution in the city. Opened by a Connecticut nightclub mogul as a follow-up to his much smaller Hartford venue, the New Haven venue was an entertainment revelation where classic music was played by interactive DJs/MCs alongside dancing bartenders and waitresses (and bouncers/doormen), with line-dances and fun routines sprinkled into the mix. (For legal reasons, the name of that historic club can't be named in print). The Music Director and Head DJ in the hot New Haven nightspot, Charles F. Rosenay!!!, was already somewhat of an area celebrity, having been a popular DJ in the state since the late 70s, and also the producer of the annual Beatles Conventions in New England. Coming in with one of the largest collection of records in the state, he was one of the first DJs in New England who was more of an "MC."

The New Haven location closed its doors in 1996. Nearly forty years after the doors opened at the iconic club, a special historic event has been planned. "The CT Sock Hop Rock & Roll Reunion Dance Party" will be taking place on Saturday Evening, November 29th at VOLO Restaurant, 117 Washington Ave., North Haven. Full cash bar. Restaurant food available. There is plenty of free parking. The unique event is hosted by Charles F. Rosenay!!! with original DJs, MCs, dancers, and regulars from the iconic New Haven nightclub, and some of the other locations.

General Admission only $19.99 ADVANCE for 7:30pm or after (standing/dancing room only), V.I.P. Early-Bird Admission 7pm-on is $35 ADVANCE (guaranteed VIP table seating and you don't have to wait in line to get in). Limited number available. Admission at the door will be $25 or $45 VIP if not sold out. Advance Tickets Now Available from www.ticketleap.events/tickets/sockhop/connecticut-sock-hop or call (203) 795-4737. The Facebook Event Page is www.facebook.com/share/1DtRusf6gW/.
