Mansfield Parks and Recreation will hold its annual Tag Sale Trail on Saturday, April 25 from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m.

"Whether you love the hunt for a bargain, need to purge your spring cleaning, or are just looking to finally get out of the house, this event has something for everyone!" said a press release from Mansfield Parks and Recreation.

The event will guide shoppers through Mansfield with a map, featuring sales at various small businesses and homes. According to recreation coordinator, Bethany Burns, this year, the event will expand to include an Earth Day celebration.

"Find treasures and treats from antiques, baby and children's items, gardening and other tools, household items, furniture, outdoor equipment, rugs, books, quilts, and much, much more!" said the press release.

In addition to home and business locations, vendor spaces in the Mansfield Community Center Gymnasium are also available. There are limited spaces available in the gym, and priority will be given on a first-come, first-served basis. Sellers will be guaranteed a 10x10 dry location with one table and two chairs. Registration for these locations is open to residents of all towns.

According to the press release, free registration for all vendors closes next Monday, April 13 to secure a spot on the map. Sellers can register online or pick up a paper copy at the Mansfield Community Center. Trail maps will also be available for shoppers online and at the community center starting April 20.

A limited number of yard signs will be provided in order of registration to Mansfield residents and Mansfield business owners only.

The press release also notes that several home vendors may also be open on Sunday, April 26.

Free trail maps, along with the registration portal can be found at www.mansfieldcc.com or participants may stop by the community center on weekdays from 5:30 a.m. to 8:30 p.m.
