Hamden Woman's Club Donates To LOVE146

Hamden: At the January meeting of the Hamden Woman's Club, our Guest Speaker was Mr. Thomas Myhren, Chief Development Officer of LOVE 146 - a non-profit organization dedicated to end the trafficking and exploitation of children and young adults. He was deeply impressed and grateful that our annual Fall Fundraiser - a charity luncheon at Anthony's Ocean View - was to benefit LOVE146. The event Co-Chairwomen, Joy Wildman and Anne Wetmore, who spent countless hours organizing committees and planning this luncheon, proudly presented a large check in the amount of $4542.00. - representing one-half of the proceeds from this event! The remaining money will be divided among several local charities that our HWC annually supports. We wish to thank all who worked so hard to make this endeavor so successful! WELL DONE!

If you are thinking about joining a wonderful social group to make a positive and rewarding difference in your life in this new year, please consider joining us - the Hamden Woman's Club, Inc., GFWC. The HWC is open to any woman over eighteen years of age who would like to volunteer in the community, develop new friendships, and have fun at the same time! We are a civic, educational and social organization that was organized in 1950 and then joined the General Federation of Women's Clubs (GFWC) in 1951. Our Motto is "A Group that Cares and Shares" - which we demonstrate by our many charitable activities to improve the quality of life within our community.

The HWC also provides many fun social benefits to our members. We have fun monthly activities - a unique Book Club that meets at a local restaurant, our "International Lunch Bunch" and our "Dinner Divas". Everyone loves our seasonal choral group as well as our annual banquets, day trips, Military Whists, Bingo and Trivia Nights, Arts & Crafts Competitions, and other fun activities. You do NOT have to live in Hamden to join - many of our members reside in area towns.

The next meeting of the HWC will be on Wednesday Feb. 4, at 6:30 pm in the Hamden Senior Center. It will be our annual Arts & Crafts Night, - always a fun evening when our very talented ladies show off their beautiful and unique creations.

NEW MEMBERS ARE ALWAYS WELCOME TO ATTEND MEETINGS, SO PLEASE JOIN US! Following the meeting, you are welcome to our social hour of "camaraderie and calories"! We encourage anyone interested in learning more about HWC please contact Sharon Nolan @ Snolan_@yahoo.com. or call 203-248-2538. Also, please look at our Facebook page - Hamden Woman's Club, GFWC, Inc. for more articles, projects, and lots of fun photos of our friendly club!

Spring Glen Garden Club Honors Grace Duffy With Lifetime Membership

Pictured Above: Grace's family who surprised her by attending the presentation. The ceremony was held at the Club's Holiday Party. Right: Long time member Grace Duffy of The Spring Glen Garden Club and 2nd Vice-President Norma Jean Macauto of The Federated Garden Clubs of Ct., Inc. As part of l00-year Celebration of the Club, the Club honored Grace with a lifetime membership. Vice-President Macauto made the presentation, which included a certificate and a pin.

Hamden: The Club would like to thank the Community for helping us celebrate our 100th anniversary.

The Garden Club ongoing projects includes the gardens and planters in Spring Glen, Poppy's Garden on the Farmington Canal Trail and the Historical Herb Garden at The Jonathan Dickerman House, watering the plants at the Government Center and the Miller Library.

The Club donated 10 American Elm hybrid trees to the Hamden Center Park as a result of its successful Wreaths for Trees program. Other projects of the Club were a Rhododendron Garden at the entry to Lockwood Cottage and the Red Oak tree (Quercus rubra) affectionately known as "Annie Oakley" planted in the Eli Whitney Park.

The Club has been a fixture in the Hamden community since 1925, a chartered member of The Federated Garden Clubs of Connecticut, Inc., and National Garden Clubs, Inc., since 1929. Please stop by our historical display in hall outside the Miller Library in front of the Thorton Wilder Auditorium.
